About Second Harvest Food Bank

Looking for mission-driven work? Based in Silicon Valley, Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties is one of the largest food banks in the nation. Currently providing food to more than one quarter of a million people every month, Second Harvest is a trusted community-based organization that was founded in 1974. Despite the immense wealth in Silicon Valley, and partly due to the high cost of living, hunger and malnutrition are pervasive. The Food Bank distributes nutritious food, including more fresh produce than any other food bank in the country, through a network of nearly 330 nonprofit partners at more than 800 sites. Second Harvest is pursuing innovative efforts to increase access to food resources. To reach more people, it advocates for anti-hunger policies and connects those in need to federal nutrition programs and other food resources. About the Position

As a Food Connection Specialist, you will help end hunger in our communities by connecting neighbors in need to food resources throughout Santa Clara County. The position conducts outreach activities, including public speaking, 1:1 outreach in high-traffic community settings (such as medical clinics, WIC offices, social service organizations, and food bank distributions), special event outreach, and materials distribution. The Specialist conducts prescreening and application assistance at off-site locations and over the phone and is responsible for continually increasing knowledge about food program and CalFresh eligibility, policy and application requirements. The Specialist also helps to train and support outreach volunteers.

Reports To
Schedule	Full-time, Monday through Friday. Some weekends and evenings required.
