Thank you for your interest in Second Harvest of Silicon Valley.

To become a partner agency of Second Harvest, your organization must meet the following criteria. It must:

1. Be a Federal nonprofit, IRS Section 501(c)(3) entity (see attached application definitions)
2. Operate an ongoing food assistance program that has been in existence for at least six (6) months
3. Serve a population that is at least 70% low-income
4. Not duplicate an existing service in the same geographic area
5. Provide proof of general liability insurance

Attached are the forms and information necessary to begin the application process. Fill out the forms completely and return the forms and required attachments to Second Harvest. The packet must be complete for the process to continue.

The Services Advisory Committee reviews applications every quarter. A representative from applying agencies must attend the review meeting.

After review and approval by the Committee, an on-site monitoring visit of your program will be scheduled. The monitoring will include inspection of your food storage facilities and evaluation of your food handling processes. Our staff nutritionist is available for advice and training in these areas. Agencies are allowed to begin picking up food only when a satisfactory monitoring report is completed.

An applicant that is denied agency status may submit a written request for reconsideration to the Services Advisory Committee within 60 days of the denial. The Services Advisory Committee will meet and will review all reconsideration requests in a timely fashion.
