TYPES OF DISCRIMINATION

1. Disparate treatment (treating a person differently from others);
2. Disparate impact (neutral rule impacts disproportionately on a group);
3. Reprisal/retaliation against complainant or his/her family, associates or others involved in complaint process or exercising civil rights.

EXCEPTIONS

Congress can establish a program that is intended for certain groups of people and it is not discrimination to exclude those who do not meet eligibility requirements. For example, Congress can set age limits, and this is not age discrimination for those who do not meet the age limits.

WHEN DO CIVIL RIGHTS RULES APPLY?

Federal civil rights rules apply any time there is any federal financial assistance. Federal financial assistance is receiving anything of value from the federal government- not just cash. It can include commodities, training, equipment, and other goods and services.

LEGAL PROHIBITIONS

The policy of the CDSS Food Assistance Programs is to not discriminate against any class of persons in the delivery of services to clients. CDSS expects local programs to provide food to every eligible person who seeks it, regardless of their status as a member of any class of persons. Any Eligible Recipient Agency (ERA) or local agency that directly or through a sub site is found to be discriminating against any class of people is at risk of termination from the program subsequent to an investigation.

Individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English are considered to have Limited English Proficiency (LEP). SEXUAL HARASSMENT IS PROHIBITED

Do not engage in or tolerate unwanted or unwelcomed sexual behavior, including jokes, touching, request for sexual favors, etc. Report all violations to your management, state or federal officials.

RESPONDING TO CONFLICTS/EMERGENCIES

If conflict occurs, remain calm. Call for assistance immediately if you feel threatened. Consider mediation or a third party to help resolve the situation if there is no immediate resolution.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

Treat all people with dignity and respect. Follow the golden rule and treat people the way you would like to be treated. Customer service is an important part of the complaint process, most times people just want to tell their side of the story. A listening ear can make the difference between calming the person down or making the situation worse.

When handling a complaint:

1. Treat everyone equally.
2. Evaluate if there are barriers that are preventing or deterring the person from receiving benefits and try to eliminate them.
3. Be respectful. Remember when people are angry, you can feel that they are taking their frustration out on you.

PUBLIC NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Ensure potentially eligible persons are aware of the program and have information on how to apply and their rights and responsibilities as a participant.

REQUIRED POSTINGS

Each ERA, local agency, distribution site, and certification site must display the ‘And Justice for All’ poster, including translations if necessary, near the location where applicants apply or register for the program.
